

Georgia Revolution FC

Refund Policy

Academy & Select

When a team is formed and a player accepts a spot for a team, that commitment is expected to last the entire club year. If a player withdraws from a team after the team has been formed, it puts the rest of the team at a disadvantage. The team may not have enough players to create a proper developmental environment, register for leagues, or sign up for tournaments. Players and parents are agreeing to this commitment when they pay their initial commitment fee. Based on these factors, our refund policy is as follows:

- Commitment Fees (1st Payment) and Registration Fees (2nd Payment) are never refundable.
- Players who voluntarily withdraw from a team after the commitment fee has been paid are not given a refund nor are any subsequent payments cancelled.
- Players who withdraw due to injury (and can provide verification from a doctor) or family relocation will be granted a refund or a monthly fee adjustment will be pro-rated and/or adjusted accordingly at the full discretion of Georgia Revolution FC.
- Extreme hardships will be considered, but are not guaranteed. These are granted on a case-by-case basis

Recreational Soccer

When a team is formed and a player accepts a spot for a team, that commitment is expected to last the entire club year. If a player withdraws from a team after the team has been formed, it puts the rest of the team at a disadvantage. It could cause the team to not have enough players to form a full team. Based on these factors, our refund policy is as follows:

- There are no refunds given after the registration deadline.
- Players who voluntarily withdraw from a team after the registration deadline are not given a refund.
- Players who withdraw due to injury (and can provide verification from a doctor) or family relocation will be granted a refund at a pro-rated rate at the full discretion of Southern Crescent Soccer.
- Extreme hardships will be considered, but are not guaranteed. These are granted on a case-by-case basis
